Excellent training. Sarah and Dave always go the extra mile, or more, to give the student their personal time and effort to explain and coach the intricacies of voice over. They are highly efficient in their business organization and extremely reasonable in their costs. Whether done virtually or in person it is hard to imagine their equal in a school for voice over acting training. Highly recommend. Richard Green MPLS

I recently completed the Essentials of Voiceover training and my overall experience was very good. All training was via Zoom, which I initially thought would somehow detract from the experience but that was not the case. I especially liked the small class size and the one-on-one coaching as a highlight of the program. It was clear that Sarah and Dave love what they do and they shared their knowledge and experience with such generosity. I highly recommend the training and look forward to working with them more in the future.

Participating in the School of Voiceover's "Essentials of VO" course was a wonderful experience! Sarah and Dave did a fantastic job of clearly explaining the VO business, gave a lot of personalized coaching, assisted with home studio set-up, and provided on-going access to all the resources a new (or experienced) VO talent would need... and all of this was done virtually! Bravo and thank you!

★★★★★

The Expo was Absolutely Fantastic Training. All the Coaches were very patient, knowledgeable and eager to share their craft. I would highly recommend this training to anyone interested in or even currently working in Voice Overs. Dave and Sarah (and all the other instructors) gave positive, constructive and honest critiques and encouragement. With the Expo and the Essentials class I feel confident to take the next steps in my new career.

★★★★★

Absolutely fantastic and so much fun! It's very flexible for teaching both beginners and pros. Everyone I met there was lovely, friendly, and knowledgeable about VO and the industry in general. The Expos are a lot of fun and 100% worth the money! It's a fast moving day so be prepared to learn and laugh a lot.

Sarah and Dave are terrific! A lot of knowledge shared in a few short weeks. Coaching techniques and in class recording sessions provide immediate feedback and allow for real time corrections/practice. In addition to the classroom training Sarah and Dave are quick to respond to questions or concerns providing valuable direction. Great knowing they are there for you and won't leave you stranded. Looking forward to working with them again!

This is an awesome school with awesome teachers that gives all the essentials needed to pursue a career in voice over. My personal experience was that I discovered this school while trying to find something that could help me improve my skills and learn more about the voice over industry, and this school was absolutely great. The Zoom classes were very informative and the sessions were really fun. Sarah and Dave are both wonderful people who created an enjoyable and enlightening experience. They offer lots of useful resources to help whenever it's needed. I learned so much from these classes and am grateful for all of the help. This is the school to look into for anyone wanting to pursue voice over and looking for enjoyable classes with great people to work with and the best knowledge you can get.

Sarah and Dave were positively wonderful at teaching all the basics and more during their classes. As an absolute beginner in the world of voiceover work, they never made me feel like I asked a stupid question! I couldn't recommend their classes more. It was not only informative, but also very fun!

Sarah and Dave are an amazing team. Any potential VO talent will be guided correctly. Take it from me, consider this a real education. Be ready to do what they ask, and you will find success. I'm so grateful!

Dave and Sarah are great teachers. They are knowledgeable and provide much insight into the voiceover world. Really nice people. They are willing to help you if you have any problems at all within the course. I took the beginner class with coaching sessions from dec 2020 to jan 2021. When I took it, it was on a sale due to covid. I thought this was an opportunity to take these classes, the only problem is not being at the physical place. Despite that I enjoyed every minute of these classes. not really a dull moment. So if you don't mind zoom meetings at home( for the time being due quarantine) then it's totally worth a shot.

I originally found the School of Acting and Voiceover when I was looking for someone to evaluate my Commercial Demo. Their price was extremely reasonable and they gave a ton of feedback! I then decided to take their Essentials of Voiceover course. It was a fantastic course that was packed full of great information! I had a great time taking the course and highly recommend it to anyone looking to further their VO career!! Thank you guys:-)

Wow what can I say! I was referred over by a friend who took the Essentials of Voiceovers course who said it was so fun and let me tell you it did not disappoint! I not only enjoyed the course a lot, but learned so much about voice acting and the business side of it too. Sarah and Dave are top notch coaches with a wealth of information to help you along your journey. I highly recommend seeking them out if you are interested in voice acting at all. Looking forward to working with them again!

School of Voiceover has inspired me to follow a career in voiceover. I have moved on from the Essentials course to the Advanced course. Affordable, thorough and, most importantly, fun! Excited to see where this path leads me.

After taking the intro class for voiceover, I was completely intrigued and followed up with the essentials class. Sarah and Dave are both so talented and incredible instructors. It was sad for me when the class ended as I loved it so much. The amount of information given to us was perfect for getting us into the voiceover business. Sarah taught acting so much better than an actual acting class I took previously. Thank you Dave and Sarah!

School of Voiceover is well worth the investment! Sarah and Dave are wonderful to work with and it was clear to me they strive to provide quality coaching despite the hurdles of Covid-19.

So now we're all at home and still need VO coaching. No problem! Sarah and Dave at School of Voiceover were able to adapt their stellar coaching to remote coaching and always go above and beyond in getting their students all the resources and help they need. If VO is your dream and you want to work from home, Sarah and Dave can give you the skills and knowledge to make it happen!

When you sign up for The School of Voiceover Training you are really signing up with Sarah and Dave. They collectively bring years of professional experience and knowledge of the business of Voiceover. But best of all, I felt their coaching and techniques were designed to make me the best that I could be versus trying to copy themselves. Very pleased with the value and results.

Sarah and Dave gave a unique experience in a virtual format. There was so much individual attention, and each session was fun and exciting! It felt very personal, even though we were all Zooming from home. I learned so much in the Essentials class!

★★★★★

I came to this class as one who is brand new to voiceover. Sarah and Dave are great teachers, they have structured this class to bring out the talent of each student. The amount of feedback given during recorded sessions was amazing. As a retired educator looking for the "encore career", I couldn't have been happier with the experience.

Don Strong

★★★★★

Great, caring instructors with extensive professional connections and experience. Also a great bang for your educational buck. Highly recommended.

★★★★★

Can't say enough about my experience. Instructors have vast experience and are willing to share their knowledge and time above and beyond the "official" -- they want you to succeed! Great format for the course I took with both group sessions and individual sessions for a more tailored experience. I learned so much about the whole package of Voiceover - the business, marketing, craft of skills, tactics for success, etc. Their Facebook content for the students is so extensive I still haven't gotten through it all!

★★★★★

Just finished the essentials of voiceover and it was so much fun! For being an essentials class I feel like I learned way more about voice acting than I expected. Sarah and Dave were super helpful and insightful on any questions that I had, they are great coaches and I'm very happy that I got the opportunity to learn from them. Highly recommend them to anyone interested in doing voice acting work.

I took part in the Voice Over Expo last winter and I found it quite intriguing, so much so, that I took the Essentials Class. I learned a lot and had fun. Sarah and Dave are excellent coaches in Voice Over as well as what you need to know about the technical parts. I left the class with new knowledge and a greater understanding of what it takes to be a Voice Talent. The course asked me to stretch myself and that is what I was looking for. I highly recommend Sarah and Dave's course work. It's well worth the investment.

★★★★★

The classes I took with Sarah and Dave were very informative and eye opening to the world of voiceover. They are top notch instructors and people! They were very welcoming and had no problem helping me in any way they could. The hardest part about the class, was having to do things remotely. I would have loved to be in an actual class, but nonetheless it was still amazing. I recommend taking these classes if you are looking into becoming a VO talent. Thank you for all your help and your vast amounts of knowledge.

I am newer to the voice over world and had a limited budget. In my research, I was looking for in person voice over training in MN that was reasonably priced. The School of Voice over Training Center was the Only training program that fit both of those criteria. I took the Voice over Essentials class. 5 weekly meetings and 2 additional workshops. Along with classroom lectures and discussions, each class had a substantial amount of on mic time for each student with live coaching from Sarah or Dave. I found this to be invaluable to the training process. After each class you receive recordings of your class session and looking back on my recordings, I can hear clear improvement. All in all, If you are ready to put in the work, Sarah and Dave are amazing coaches to help guide you forward.
